Practice profile

Victor practices both criminal and civil litigation. He joined Wong Man Kit SC's Chambers in 2017 after five years at Liberty Chambers, which he joined in 2012 upon completion of his pupillages with Ms. Charlotte Draycott SC, Mr. Graham Harris SC, Ms. Lisa Remedios, Mr. Lawrence Ng and Mr. Richard Leung.

Victor has experience in being involved in the defence of criminal cases in the Court of Appeal, the High Court, the District Court and the Magistrates' Courts. He has also prosecuted for the DOJ at the High Court and in the Magistrates' Courts. In recent years his practice has focused on white collar cases such as money-laundering, complex commercial fraud and SFC regulatory matters.

Victor has a broad civil practice in a variety of practice areas. He is regularly instructed in his core practice areas of construction law, defamation law, matrimonial matters, land disputes, shipping law and costs/taxation matters. He has appeared at the Court of Appeal, the High Court, the District Court, the Family Court and the Lands Tribunal (both as sole counsel and being led as a junior counsel).

Victor is a CEDR Accredited Mediator and is listed on the Hong Kong Bar Association's List of Mediators and the General Mediator Panel of the HKMAAL. He has been appointed as a mediator in various matters, including multi-party commercial disputes, company disputes, construction disputes, matrimonial disputes and property disputes.

Victor is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is the editor of the 2012 and 2016 updates of the Halsbury's Laws of Hong Kong (Arbitration). He has acted as Counsel in various arbitrations involving shipping matters.

Victor can conduct cases and draft pleadings in both English and Chinese. He speaks fluent English, Cantonese and Putonghua.
