Call: Hong Kong (2012)

Victor T.S. Lui

Practice profile

Victor has an all-rounded practice and is regularly instructed to handle cases with regards to their civil, criminal and regulatory aspects concurrently. He joined Wong Man Kit SC's Chambers in 2017 after five years at Liberty Chambers, which he joined in 2012 upon completion of his pupillages with Ms. Charlotte Draycott SC, Mr. Graham Harris SC, Ms. Lisa Remedios, Mr. Lawrence Ng and Mr. Richard Leung and as the judge's marshall of the Honourable Mr. Justice Line.

Victor maintains a broad civil practice with particular emphasis in the following core practice areas:

(1) Securities Law - Victor is regularly instructed to act for listed companies, securities firms and SFC licensed individuals. He appeared in two recent reviews before the Securities and Futures Appeals Tribunal:(1) Cai Hong Ping v Securities and Futures Commission (SFAT 3/2019) (acted for the Applicant in his review against the SFC's decision to prohibit him from conducting various regulated activities for 5 years under s.196 of the SFO. The review was allowed and the sanctions imposed on the Applicant by the SFC were set aside); and (2) Yi Shun Da Capital Limited v Securities and Futures Commission (SFAT 4/2020) (acted for the Applicant in its review against the SFC's decision to fine and discipline the company in respect of its conduct as sole sponsor of a listing application. Upon review, the SFC's decision was upheld but the sanctions imposed were reduced). He has represented various listed companies and SFC licensed individuals in handling enquiries by the SFC and the HKEX which ultimately resulted in no further action being taken by the regulatory authorities. He is the Editor of Securities Law: Hong Kong SAR and People's Republic of China (LexisNexis).

(2) Costs/taxation related matters - Victor has substantial experience in costs/taxation related matters. He is regularly instructed to act for law firms and clients in solicitor/own client taxation disputes and costs-related applications. He has acted in various applications for a personal costs order against a non-party pursuant to s.52A of the High Court Ordinance: (1) Ng Hing Yau and another v Kong Art Limited [2022] 2 HKLRD 1153; [2022] HKCFI 1381 (acted for the Plaintiffs and obtained a personal costs order against a third party i.e. the Defendant's director; (2) Dung Wai Man and others v Ng Yuk Pui Kelly [2019] HKCFI 1157 (acted for the 4th to 6th Defendants and resisted an application for a personal costs order to be made against them); and (3) Big Island Construction (HK) Limited v Wu Yi Development Company Limited and others [2018] 2 HKLRD 1145; [2019] HKCFI 1157 (acted for the Plaintiffs and obtained a personal costs order against the Plaintiff's director). He has represented parties in two recent decisions of the Court of Appeal: (1) Yoe Han Yauw v Yoe Han Hian and others [2022] HKCA 498 (acted for the Applicant in an appeal against an adverse costs order resulting from an Originating Summons seeking inspection of documents pursuant to section 740 of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622), in which the appeal was allowed); and (2) Ng Hing Yau and another v Kong Art Limited [2023] HKCA 212 (acted for the Plaintiffs and resisted the Third Party's application for extension of time to appeal against the First Instance Judgment, in which the Third Party was ordered to personally bear the Plaintiffs' costs of the action). He is the Current Editor of Lexis Practical Guidance on (1) solicitor and client costs; (2) taxation of costs; (3) general rules about costs; and (4) types of costs order and the Current Editor of Annotated Ordinances of Hong Kong (Costs in Criminal Cases Ordinance).

(3) Arbitration - Victor is regularly instructed to act as counsel in Arbitrations involving commercial, contractual and shipping disputes. In the recent case of EW v HC [2023] HKCFI 2619; [2023] HKCFI 3157, he acted for the Claimant in an Arbitration in which the Tribunal allowed the Claimant's claim for the sum of over US$6.4 million. The Respondent's application to set aside the Award was dismissed by the Court and the Respondent's application for leave to appeal against the Court's decision was also dismissed. He is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the editor of Halsbury's Laws of Hong Kong (Arbitration) (2012 edition) and Halsbury's Laws of Hong Kong (Arbitration) (2016 edition).

(4) Defamation - Victor is regularly instructed to act as counsel in defamation cases. In the case of Yu Sau Ning Homer v Wong Wan Keung and ors. [2020] HKDC 40, he acted for the Plaintiff in a 17-day trial of a defamation action in respect of articles alleging wrongdoings of the Plaintiff during his role as the Chairman of the Incorporated Owners of a building (led by Mr. Lawrence Ng). The Court ruled in favour of the Plaintiff and awarded damages of HK$1,000,000. The 2nd and 3rd Defendants' application for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal was dismissed.

Victor has experience of defending criminal cases in all levels of Court. He has also prosecuted for the DOJ at the High Court and in the Magistrates' Courts. His practice is focused on white collar cases such as money-laundering, complex commercial fraud and SFC regulatory matters.

Victor is a CEDR Accredited Mediator and is listed on the Hong Kong Bar Association's List of Mediators and the General Mediator Panel of the HKMAAL. He is regularly appointed as the mediator for cases including multi-party commercial disputes, company disputes, construction disputes, matrimonial disputes and property disputes.

Victor has been the Editor of 37 different legal publications including various editions of Halsbury's Laws of Hong Kong and Annotated Ordinances of Hong Kong.

Victor can conduct cases and draft pleadings in both English and Chinese. He speaks fluent English, Cantonese and Putonghua.

Selected Cases

Highlights of Recent Cases

Chen Simon Guomin v Chan Choi Har Ivy and ors [2023] HKCFI 3135

Acted for the Plaintiff in a claim arising from outstanding loans and interest totalling over HK$52 million. The Court ruled in favour of the Plaintiff after trial (led by Mr. Lawrence Ng).

Notable Cases

Criminal cases

HKSAR v Wong Ying Ho Kennedy and others (HCCC 409/2015; DCCC190/2017)

Acted for Wong Ying Ho Kennedy (a member of the Political Consultative Conference of the PRC) who is charged with 2 bribery offences. The trial was ordinarily scheduled to take place before a jury in the High Court in February 2017, but upon the application by the Department of Justice, the High Court Judge ordered that the matter be transferred to the District Court for trial. Marco is not involved in the District Court trial. (led by Mr. MK Wong SC)

HKSAR v Ho Chai Kong (HCMA 328/2014)

Lay client was convicted of indecent assault after trial (the trial was conducted by another counsel) and had his conviction quashed in the appeal on the ground that the learned trial magistrate erred in accepting the evidence of the victim (led by Mr. MK Wong SC)

HKSAR v Luo Jian Siang & Fan Po Hsun (HCMP 3205/2015)

Lay clients were charged with breach of condition of stay and refused bail in Magistrates' Court. Lay clients made a bail application to the Court of First Instance which was granted. The Department of Justice eventually decided to offer no evidence against the lay clients. (with Ms. Amanda W.M. Li)

HKSAR v Szeto Kin-kwan Franco (KTCC 4866/2016)

Acting for lay client who was charged with the offence of soliciting and accepting an advantage as an agent under section 9 of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (Cap. 201). (in his own right)

HKSAR v Chen Tin Ho (KCS 13084 - 13086/2016)

Lay client was charged with 3 summonses for failing to stop and report to the police after an accident. Lay client was acquitted of all summonses after the no case to answer submission was accepted.

Industrial summonses

HKSAR v Fai Hung Construction (HK) Co. Ltd (KCS 22922 - 22935/2014)

The defendant company was charged with 14 summonses, arising from a fatal accident. The prosecution applied for an adjournment on the first day of the trial and subsequently decided to offer no evidence against the defendant company for all summonses. (with Ms. Amanda W.M. Li)

HKSAR v Jadelink Holdings Limited (KTS9926/2016)

The defendant company was charged with an offence under section 6A of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap.59), arising from an accident in which a finger of an employee of the defendant company was cut off by a mincer. The defendant was acquitted of the summons after trial. (in his own right)

HKSAR v Well Flooring & Engineering Co. Ltd & Another (ESS 21596 - 21603/2016)

The defendant company was charged with 4 summonses involving, inter alia, offences under section 6A of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap.59). The defendant company was acquitted of all summonses after trial. (in his own right)

HKSAR v Hong Kong Macau (Asia) Engineering Co. Ltd (KCS 27279 - 27280/2016)

The defendant company was charged with 2 summonses concerning failure to take adequate steps to prevent any person from falling from a height of 2m or more. The defendant company was acquitted of both summonses after trial. (in his own right)

HKSAR v Kwan On Construction Co. Ltd & Another (KCS 21539 - 21542/2016)

The defendant companies were charged 4 summonses involving offences under sections 6A and 13 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap.59), where a crane tilted sideways during a lifting operation in the Kai Tak Development Stage 4 construction site. The defendant company was acquitted of all summons after trial. (in his own right)

Civil cases

Primecredit Limited v Wong Ho & Another (HCMP 2103/2015; CACV 246/2016)

Acting for lay client who made substantial financial contribution to the purchase of a Home Ownership Scheme property of which the legal title was vested with her family members. A creditor of the son of lay client, the registered owner of the property, contended that lay client is not a beneficial owner of the property and sought to enforce a charging order against the property. The appeal will be heard in June 2017. (with Mr. Anthony P.W. Cheung)

Fung Ka Wing v The Kik Lok Tung Benevolent Society Limited (DCCJ 400/2016)

Represented the defendant in the District Court trial resisting an adverse possession claim by a former tenant in respect of a residential unit in a multi-storey building (together with Mr. Hatten Kong)

Practice profile

Lisa joined Chambers in 2020 after completion of pupillage with Mr. M. K. Wong S.C., Mr. Tim Wong, Mr. Valentine Yim, Mr. Tony Ko, Mr. Peter Duncan S.C., and Ms. Catherine Wong.

Lisa is developing a broad criminal and civil practice and has experience in matters spanning a wide spectrum of practice areas. She has appeared both in her own right and as a led junior in the Court of Appeal, the Court of First Instance, the District Court and the Magistrates' Courts. Besides, she has experience in handling disciplinary matters of professional bodies. She also acted as counsel-on-fiat for the prosecution in the Magistrates' Courts and is currently on the Legal Aid Panel for criminal matters.

Lisa has experience in a wide range of criminal cases, both at trial and appellate level, such as misconduct in public office, white-collar crimes including money laundering and corruption, fraud, sexual offences, assault and wounding offences, criminal damage, general and serious road traffic offences (including dangerous driving causing death), drug-related offences and immigration offences. She also has experience in doing High Court bail applications. Further, she is regularly instructed to attend legal visits at police stations, ICAC, Immigration Department and Labour Department.

In her first year of practice, Lisa has been led by Mr. M. K. Wong S.C. (and with Mr. Ronny Leung) to act for a defendant in an 85-day trial in the District Court regarding the offence of misconduct in public office committed by three public eye doctors in Caritas Medical Centre (HKSAR v Yau Shing Kin & Others [2020] HKDC 1177). The Defendant was acquitted of all three charges.

Subsequently in HKSAR v Eugene Yeoh Kim Loong and Another [2021] HKDC 1560; [2022] 5 HKLRD 1082, Lisa represented the 1st Defendant (being led by Mr. M. K. Wong S.C. and with Ms. Sylvia Tung), then Joint Head of the IPO Vetting team of HKEx, who was charged with misconduct in public office and bribery (concerning $9.15 million) in a District Court trial. The Defendant was acquitted of all charges.

Alongside her criminal practice, Lisa has maintained a general civil practice in contract, trusts, land (including tenancy matters and adverse possession), contentious probate, and matrimonial cases. She is regularly instructed to appear in various interlocutory applications in her own right, including interlocutory injunctions and Mareva injunctions.

Lisa accepts instructions for both advocacy and advisory work in all areas of practice.
